

What is YAC?

The Youth Advisory Committee (YAC) is an organization composed of students around Huron County. The YAC is a standing committee of the Huron County Community Foundation (HCCF). Its membership includes four students, ideally one from each grade, from each Huron County high school. The YAC is supported by two adult advisors, Mackenzie Price Sundblad and Laura Tyll. The YAC meets monthly to help improve the quality of life in Huron County. We do this by conducting surveys to find the biggest problems impacting our peers, called the Needs Assessment. The YAC is responsible for reviewing grant applications and advise HCCF on funding grants for youth projects to impact the needs reported during the survey. The YAC also does an awareness needs-based project every year, along with community service and a fund development project.

The roles and responsibilities of being a member include: attending monthly meetings, active participation in meetings and events, a deep desire to better our community through grant making, and an interest in working with youth from across the county to have an impact.

The organization was established in 1997 and continues to flourish. Few accomplishments are rewarding individuals and programs. While in YAC, individuals are taught the importance of philanthropy and giving back to the community while having fun and making new friends.
